IN DEPORTATION PROCEEDINGS

APPEAL

ON BEHALF OF RESPONDENT: Aggie R. Hoffman, Esquire

CHARGE:

Order: Sec. 241(a)(1)(B), I&N Act [8 U.S.C. § 1251(a)(1)(B)] -
In the United States in violation of law

APPLICATION: Reopening

ORDER:

PER CURIAM. This case is presently before us pursuant to the March 10, 2006, decision of the United States Court of Appeals for the (b) (6). The court found that the Board denied the respondent's right to due process when it denied his motion to reopen prior to the time the respondent submitted all the material in support of the motion, material which was submitted after the motion itself was filed, but before the 90-day deadline for filing motions to reopen. The court therefore found that the Board also erred in denying the respondent's motion to reconsider the denial of the motion to reopen. The court remanded the case for the Board to consider the merits of the respondent's motion to reopen.

We note that in its decision, the court referred to "incompetent" and "distorted" translation at the respondent's removal hearing, and stated that the improper translation "resulted in the Immigration Judge's fatal misunderstanding of a dispositive moment" in the respondent's hearing. In view of the court's decision, and upon further review of the record, we find that a remand is necessary to allow the respondent a further opportunity to present his claim that he suffered persecution, and fears persecution, on account of a protected ground. We also note that the last hearing in this case was held close to 9 years ago, and a remand will also allow the parties to update the record regarding current country conditions in Armenia as they may relate to this respondent. See Lopez v. Ashcroft, 366 F.3d 799 (9th Cir. 2004).

(b) (6)

Accordingly, the decisions of the Board in this case dated May 23, 2003, and February 12, 2003, are vacated, the deportation proceedings are reopened, and the record is remanded to the Immigration Judge for further proceedings consistent with this decision and the decision of the court.
